

Charles Siu, Words in Motion Website, 2017.

Words in Motion is a website that translates the poem The Map by Marie Lowe into a digital form. The website was create to place the reader into the atmosphere of the poem, and engages the reader by introducing various visual effects and interactions within the page. The website also incorporates JavaScript viewport scrolling detection and CSS3 animations and transformation. The inspiration of the website comes from various concrete poetry examples during ART 175 class. The aim for this website is to visualize the poem in a way that is different than the author original intend.
